Areas of Competition:

INTERVIEW (Junior/Young/ Teen/Miss) Your interview will be held on Saturday, August 18th, before the pageant. (Time TBA). Miss interviews will be 8 minutes, Teen interviews will be 6 minutes, and Junior/Young interviews will be 5 minutes. Judges will ask questions about yourself, your school, the Poultry Jubilee Festival, current events, and items that are on your CONTESTANT INFORMATION SHEET. You should wear a Sunday dress or suit that is age appropriate.

***Teen and Miss contestants must submit 5 copies of personal platform statement. Platform statement should be 1 page in length, single spaced. Page layout: 1" margins, left justification contestant name and age division, 5 spaces between age division and body of statement.

FESTIVAL WEAR COMPETITION (All Divisions) During this phase of competition, the contestants are asked to wear a fun, bright outfit that could be worn to the NC Poultry Jubilee Festival. This outfit should not be dressy, but casual! Contestants are encouraged to showcase their personality. Festival wear can be custom or off the rack, bling or not BUT should be appropriate for the category. The judges are not just judging the outfit; they are judging how well you carry yourself. Have fun, be creative, yet tasteful.

TALENT COMPETITION (Little/Junior/Young/Teen/Miss) Talent should NOT exceed 3 minutes. Points will be deducted if you exceed the time limit. Miss and Teen contestants are HIGHLY ENCOURAGED to keep their talent selection within the 90 second time limit per Miss NC standard. You should select your talent, get the music, and perfect and polish your routine. A good quality CD to be used in the background is essential, unless you are playing the piano or performing a monologue. If you sing, make sure the song is appropriate and fits your vocal range. If you dance, be sure to use a variety of steps. It's always a good idea to get someone to critique your routine. ALL TALENT CD's MUST BE RECEIVED BY AUGUST 5th.

PARTY WEAR & ONSTAGE QUESTIONS (Wee/Little) During this phase of competition, contestants are asked to wear dresses with a touch of bling or sparkle. Think "NEW YEAR'S EVE". No long dresses. No glitzy, pageant style dresses. White shoes and white socks are a requirement. Again, the judges are not just judging the outfit; they are judging how well you carry yourself. Have fun, be creative, yet tasteful. Contestants will come on stage, model their Party Wear, and then join Teen Miss NC Poultry Jubilee 2017 for a short question/answer exchange. These questions will be simple and come directly from your CONTESTANT INFORMATION SHEET. ***We will practice the questions/answers on the eve of the pageant***

EVENING GOWN COMPETITION (Junior/Young/Teen/Miss) Be sure that your evening gown is age appropriate. Dresses should reflect your age and be floor length. They should fit nicely, the color should complement you and you should be able to walk in it comfortably. Heels are required. Practice walking in them before the pageant and bring them to each rehearsal.

ONSTAGE QUESTIONS (Junior/Young/Teen/Miss) For Junior, Young and Teen contestants Onstage questions will come from the Rose Hill fact sheet or your CONTESTANT INFORMATION SHEET and take place during evening gown. Miss contestants will be given their onstage question after opening number. When asked the question, by our reigning Miss NC Poultry Jubilee 2017, you will respond to the judges with your answer.
